[redacted] the train in paragraph 1 is believed to have carried batteries of AAA components of the 9th Tank Div, the 20th Gds Mecz Div, and the 14th Gds Mecz Div; while the train in paragraph 2 probably carried AAA batteries of the 20th Gds Mecz Div, the 9th Tank Div and the 7th Gds Tank Div. It is possible that the individual batteries were uncoupled at railroad junctions and proceeded to their respective designations.

25X1A

(2) This train was also reported by a source from Neuruppin. [redacted]. It may have gone to Altengrabow because vehicles of the 12th Gds Tank Div were observed there at the end of August 1951. Sec

25X1A [redacted]. The train may have been one of the series of trains on which components of the 12th Gds Tank Div rotated to the Jueterlog troop training grounds for artillery practice cycles. [redacted]

25X1A [redacted]

25X1D (3) [redacted], the west-bound train carried components of the 1st Mecz Div. It may have been a train which was dispatched from Altengrabow to Doeberitz on 24 August 1951. [redacted]

25X1D(4) [redacted], components of the 1st Mecz Div were 25X1A loaded.
